NOTICE RE: INTERVENOR'S REQUEST FOR RECORDS

Mr. William Williams, intervenor in pro per, has contacted this Division's Judicial Assistant concerning his February 7, 2011, request for records. Mr. Williams notes this Court's December 8, 2010, order regarding a procedure for requesting records.

This Court's initial ruling filed June 10, 2011, has addressed the request for records and the issue of unsealing and unrestricting records to the extent possible at this time. As noted in that ruling and in a prior pleading submitted by the Attorney General's office (Objection and Motion to Strike or Dismiss filed January 18, 2011), the procedure for requesting records is set forth in Arizona Supreme Court Rule 123. Thus, this Court has acknowledged that its suggestion was apparently incorrect.

However, it is anticipated that the Superior Court likely will continue to be involved in the matter of unsealing records, and this Court does not intend to let procedures unnecessarily delay the unsealing of records. In its initial ruling on this matter, the Court has recognized the extremely important public interests involved. Therefore, although the June 10 order has responded to pending requests, this Court will review the thirteen specific items requested in order to expedite the process if possible. The status of documents will not, however, be changed prior to July 15.
